Select a Scholarship Payment Method:

- Make the scholarship directly to UNL’s Scholarships & Financial Aid Office so they can apply the scholarship to the recipient’s UNL Account. This scholarship will appear on the student’s UNL account as an outside scholarship credit.

This scholarship may affect the recipient's financial aid status since scholarships are counted as a fund source when determining financial aid eligibility. Therefore, this scholarship may reduce the recipient's grants, student loans or other type of aid being received. If a reduction does occur, this payment will be used to cover any balance due created by this scholarship.

- Make the scholarship directly to the student and provide this information to UNL’s Scholarships & Financial Aid Office.

This scholarship may affect the recipient's financial aid status since scholarships are counted as a fund source when determining financial aid eligibility. Therefore, this scholarship may reduce the recipient's grants, student loans or other type of aid being received. If a reduction does occur, this payment will be used to cover any balance due created by this scholarship.

If payment is made directly to the student, SOFS will issue a Federal Form 1099. Therefore, the recipient of this payment must provide SOFS with a properly completed Federal Form W-9 at the time the scholarship payment request is submitted.
